Practice Transitions Institute

Specialized consulting company coaching dentists, MDs, Podiatrist, Osteopaths, and general business owners to achieve and understand their goals

Professional Background

Dr. Michael Njo is a proud graduate of UOP, School of Dentistry. After hibernating his disk, Dr. Njo founded Dental Strategies. Dental Strategies is a specialized consulting company which coaches Dentist to achieving and understanding their goals.

Just a few goals to mention range from, starting a practice whether a start-up or purchase, forming partnerships, expansions, retirement strategies, selling practices, valuations, malpractice, and conflict issues, introducing technology, team building, and implementing operating systems to achieve the maximum efficiency and profitability for their offices.

Dr. Michael Njo has been consulting for 25 years and has built his consulting company all by direct referral. Dental Strategies customizes his program for the specific needs of the doctor and practice. He will develop a program to implement and facilitate the goals you desire.

Dr. Michael Njo is an Author of Dental Practice Transitions Handbook, Director of the Dugoni Business Club, founded an educational company for transitions - Practice Transitions Institute, he is part of the admission's team for UOP, serves on the Board of Directors at the Dugoni School of Dentistry, and the CDA Leadership Council.
